Sanofi offers savings on Adlyxin through the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program for eligible patients. With this savings offering for Adlyxin, patients who were previously enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program and taking select Sanofi products will have a $0 co-pay. Patients who are eligible to sign up for the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program will pay no more than $15 per prescription.

1. What is the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card offering?

OFFER:

Which patients qualify for $0 co-pay?

-  Eligible, commercially-insured patients previously enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program and
-  Currently taking Lantus® (insulin glargine injection) 100 Units/mL or Toujeo® (insulin glargine injection) 300 Units/mL (defined as having commercial insurance and having filled a prescription through the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program)

Which patients qualify to pay no more than $15 co-pay?

-  Eligible, commercially-insured patients new to the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program

PROCESSING:

How do my patients know if they are enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program?

-  If a patient is not sure whether they are enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program or would like to enroll, please direct them to call 1-866-255-8661
-  Patients can present their Lantus® or Toujeo® co-pay card to their Pharmacist when filling their Adlyxin prescription for additional co-pay savings

For patients already enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program:

-  If a commercially-insured patient is already enrolled in the program and has filled a prescription for Lantus® or Toujeo®, process the Adlyxin prescription with the patient's current Sanofi Rx Savings Card as secondary coverage

2. How long does the offer apply for?

-  Eligible patients save on every prescription of Adlyxin for 12 months
-  To continue receiving savings after 12 months, patients are required to re-enroll in the program in order to confirm that they are not currently enrolled in Medicare, Medicaid, or any other federal or state funded prescription drug benefit program
-  Patients can re-enroll by calling 1-866-255-8661

*This offer is for patients with commercial/private insurance and is not valid for prescriptions covered by or submitted for reimbursement under Medicare, Medicaid, VA, DOD, or TRICARE, or similar federal or state programs including any state pharmaceutical programs. Important to note that if you have an Affordable Care (Health Care Exchange) plan, you may still be qualified to receive and use this savings card. Also, if you have a Federal Employee Health Benefits (FEHB) plan with Commercial or private insurance, you may be qualified to receive and use this savings card. Void where prohibited by law. Patients enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Program for Toujeo® (insulin glargine injection) 300 Units/mL or Lantus® (insulin glargine injection) 100 Units/mL have a $0 co-pay per prescription for 12 months. All other eligible patients have a $15 co-pay per prescription for 12 months. This offer will cover a copay balance up to a maximum of $700 off each prescription for the duration of the program. Savings may vary depending on individual out-of-pocket costs. This offer only applies to prescriptions requiring a copay and cannot be applied to prescriptions being paid in cash. Upon registration, eligible patients will receive all program details. Sanofi reserves the right to rescind, revoke, or amend the program at any time without notice.

3. What are the eligibility rules for the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card?

The Adlyxin Rx Savings Card will offer co-pay savings to patients ages 18 and older for:

-  Claims paid by commercial prescription insurance
-  Claims where a patient is commercially insured but Adlyxin is not covered

The Adlyxin Rx Savings Card will not offer co-pay savings for:

-  Claims paid in part or full by any state or federally funded programs including, but not limited to, Medicare, Medicaid, Medigap, VA, DOD, or TriCare
-  Cash claims

4. What about patients who aren't enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program but are currently taking Toujeo® (insulin glargine injection) 300 Units/mL or Lantus® (insulin glargine injection) 100 Units/mL?

-  Commercially-insured patients not previously enrolled in the Sanofi Rx Savings Card program will qualify to pay no more than $15 per prescription of Adlyxin

5. How can patients obtain an Rx savings card for Adlyxin?

Patients can obtain a card by calling 1-866-255-8661.

6. How does the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card work depending on formulary status?

Regardless of formulary status and restrictions, the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card should work for commercially insured patients if it is input as secondary coverage.

7. How do I process a claim through the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card that is requiring a prior authorization?

-  If a prior authorization (PA) is required, please follow your normal process to submit the request for the PA and obtain the PA from the plan. Once the PA is approved, the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card can be processed as secondary coverage
-  Sanofi offers support for processing Prior Authorizations through the Sanofi Patient Connect Program. Pharmacists, patients, and physicians can contact Sanofi Patient Connection at 1-888-847-4877, with live support available Monday-Friday 9:00 AM-8:00 PM EST

8. Does the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card work for patients with a high deductible commercial plan?

Yes, the claim should be submitted with the patient's insurance as the primary coverage and the savings card as the secondary coverage. If the patient is in the deductible phase, the savings card will help pay down the patient's deductible up to $700 per prescription.

9. Does the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card work for patients who are insured by a Health Insurance Exchange through the Affordable Care Act?

Health Insurance Exchanges are considered a commercial program, not a government program. Therefore, patients participating in the exchanges who meet all other qualifications are eligible for the co-pay program.

10. Who should I contact if I'm having issues processing the Adlyxin Rx Savings Card?

If you are having any issues processing the savings card, contact McKesson customer service at the Sanofi Rx Savings Card dedicated number: 1-866-255-8661.
